.....
TO THE ELECTION
.....

A 250TH ANNIVERSARY
PRAYER GUIDE

Dear Friend,

You and I have the opportunity, privilege and duty to "stand in the gap" for America in prayer as our nation votes this fall. Great issues will be decided, and I urge you to intercede on America's behalf.

This year carries even greater weight, as we mark 250 years since our nation's founding — 250 years of God's providence, protection, and mercy toward America. Before we begin this journey together, I want to pause and give thanks. Would you join me in this foundational prayer?

Heavenly Father, we thank You for this land and for 250 years of Your faithfulness to it. We thank You for the men and women who founded this nation on the conviction that liberty is a gift from You, not granted from the government. Forgive us where we have strayed from that conviction, and where we have taken Your blessings for granted. As we enter this season of prayer for this election, give us grateful hearts, humble spirits, and eyes fixed on Your Kingdom above every earthly one. In Jesus' name, Amen.

This 40 day prayer guide will help you intercede with focus and purpose as we look ahead to November. May God bless you as you invoke His protection and blessing on our land, and may He continue to be gracious to America in this milestone year!

All scripture references are ESV unless otherwise noted.

This year, as we intercede for the upcoming election, we do so in the shadow of a milestone few nations ever reach: 250 years of independence. The founders who signed their names to that founding document did so at great personal risk, trusting that liberty rooted in Biblical truth was worth defending. As we vote, we have the same opportunity, and the same duty, to steward that inheritance faithfully for generations to come.
